

~~SECRET~~~~SECRET~~~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP

126366

INTELLIGENCE REPORT

COUNTRY Poland/USSE

DATE:

25X1A6a

SUBJECT Soviet Forces in Poland

INFO.

DIST.

10 November 1947

25X1A6a

PAGES

ORIGIN

25X1X6

SUPPLEMENT

SOURCE

1. The transfer of the 415th Motorized Division from Radom (R52/Q19) to Insterburg (Russian East Prussia) was completed in July.
2. This division was replaced by the Soviet 17th White Russian Motorized Division, which is billeted as follows:

General Vorobiev and his staff at Lublin
 1st Regiment at Bialystok
 2nd Regiment at Radom
 3rd Regiment at Lublin and suburbs
 4th Regiment at Siedlce (R53/L88) and suburbs
 The field post address is DYNAMO-713 BP 1049 KA 5

The strength of the division is very low. Each regiment numbers about 900 men. The soldiers are well equipped and well dressed. General Vorobiev was at one time a professor of military training at Lwow University.

This document contains information affecting the national defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Act, 50, U.S.C. 31 and 32 as amended. Its transmission or the revelation of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

Document No. 003

NO CHANGE in Class.

☒ DECLASSIFIED

Class. GDS/TC

Auth. DDA/TC

Date: APR 24 1978

By: 013

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.

Next Review Date: 2008

CLASSIFICATION

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ REFERENCE CENTER LIBRARY